

Teen Conference

Meet the Skeptic!

You can hear people's worldviews in the words and phrases they choose to use during a conversation...and you never know when one of those conversations will present a challenge to your Christian faith.

Meet the Skeptic gives students a framework to uncover the root causes of skepticism. Identifying four types of skepticism—Spiritual, Moral, Scientific, and Biblical—and responses for each, this course will equip your teen to compassionately and respectfully defend and share their faith. Even if you have experienced this Bill Foster book before, your teen will be refreshed and reenergized through new interaction and role play.

This apologetics course is taught by Pastor Timothy Schmidt and Deb Badeer.
